

As a resident of Indiana, I have found the Do Not Call list a valuable asset to my interruption free meals. It's a wonderful feeling to know that you are not going to be interrupted every night by someone wanting to sell you something. Please do not grant the Consumer Banks Association "a back door entrance" into this law.

As private citizens, we can easily contact any company that we wish if we decide to do business with them. These unsolicited phone calls are just another way that people can be scammed by less than legitimate people.
